We had another fantastic month at the Shreveport Yacht Club. The Fourth of July was a great day to be at the club and on the lake. The fireworks show was spectacular thanks to Wayne Wentworth. Sunday racing, Bingo and Taco Night have all been a great success, as well, thanks to Rick, Chef Robert and the SYC Staff. I'm pleased to

Commodore's Comments

to announce that on August 31st, I will be accepting SYC's entry into the Gulf Yachting Association membership. Being GYA members gives SYC members "reciprocal" access to all the GYA member clubs and our racing sailors more diverse regattas choices, especially along the Gulf Coast. I encourage everybody to check out www.GYA.org for more information.

With only a few weeks before the kids are back in school, what better way to end summer than at the Shreveport Yacht Club. The food is great, the drinks are cold, and the pool is blue. I hope to see you around!

James Coe – Commodore

Friday, August 22nd
6:00-9:00pm
$28.00/person

Reservation Required

There will NOT be ala carte dinner service on this night.

You pick the pasta, sauce and toppings and enjoy the show as Chef Robert and his staff prepare your order before your eyes in the dining room. With a wide selection of pastas, sauces, meats, vegetables, spices and cheeses, there will be something for everyone.

A Caesar salad, garlic bread sticks and tiramisu will accompany your pasta dish.
